

R. MATTHEW GASKELL, C.E.T. – TECHNOLOGIST
HFP ACOUSTICAL CONSULTANTS CORP.

EDUCATION	Computer Engineering Technology, SAIT - Calgary, 2000
PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS	Member, ASET
PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE	Consultant		November 2001 – Present
	HFP Acoustical Consultants Corp.		Calgary Alberta
	Responsible for network administration, computer maintenance and IT infrastructure, field equipment and development of new equipment, assist engineers/consultants in field with expertise of equipment, perform in-plant equipment diagnostics, environmental noise surveys, and data analysis
	Electromechanical Technologist Sanmina	Systems	October 2000 – May 2001 Calgary Alberta
	Visual inspection of units, connect and test units, interpret error codes, do inspections for quality control

Mr. Gaskell has over 15 years' experience with computers and electrical/mechanical equipment. He has a diploma from the Southern Alberta Institute of Technology (SAIT) in Computer Engineering Technology and is a Certified Engineering Technologist through ASET. He has developed and tested new equipment to continue the advancement of noise monitoring technology to ensure the best value and quality to clients. He has performed noise surveys at large industrial sites including petrochemical plants and gas compressor stations and as well has done in-plant equipment diagnostics. Mr. Gaskell's current consulting role includes in-plant equipment diagnostics and environmental noise surveys.